مساء الاحد 15 كانون الثاني 2012 استقبل سيادة متروبوليت بيروت وتوابعها المطران الياس عوده وزير خارجية تركيا أحمد داود أوغلو مع الوفد المرافق في دار المطرانية في الأشرافية. وقد حضر اللقاء وزير الاقتصاد نقولا نحاس . بعد اللقاء قال الوزير أوغلو:

We had an excellent talk. His eminence was very kind to receive us with a short notice. We have spoken on philosophy, theology, Muslim– Christian historical background, multiculturalism of Beirut and Lebanon, the situation in our region and how we can promote Muslim Christian dialogue, sectarian dialogue, religious dialogue. It was an excellent visit.

No politics?

As I said in general. How can we protect religious and multi–religious presence and dialogue in our region. This was related to politics indirectly. But the main purpose was how to protect religious traditions in our region and how to make sure that these political crisis would not create any religious or sectarian tension.

كذلك سجّل الوزير أوغلو في سجّل التشريفات الآتي:

It is a great honor to visit and have a chance to meet His Eminence Metropolitan of Beirut Elias Audi. Our consultation on religious traditions and multicultural legacy in our region was a sincere and friendly dialogue for me as a scholar. I was very impressed by his vision regarding our common cultural and religious heritage in our region. I am grateful for this opportunity and hope to meet again to continue our dialogue.
